crime activity both in and out of Mexico, to monitor the Mexican political climate, to seek and apprehend suspects throughout Mexico and arrange for their deportation and extradition to the United States. In addition, he was responsible for handling the dignitary protection detail for any San Diego government official traveling into Mexico including the United States "Drug Czar."

Raul also assisted the Federal, State, and Municipal Mexican government in conducting investigations in the United States. He further provided Mexican government official with protection details during their official visits to the United States. Lastly, Raul participated in numerous kidnapping investigations, money drops and rescue operations while working in conjunction with the Mexican Anti- Kidnapping Unit in Tijuana, Mexico.

Detective Delgadillo also obtained expertise in Gang investigations while assigned to the Street Gang Unit. when he was assigned to monitor and investigate the Mexican gangs operating in San Diego. Prior to the Street Gang Unit, Detective Delgadillo was assigned to the Narcotics Unit where he conducted street and mid-level narcotic investigations. Before becoming a Detective, he worked patrol for Central Division which is a primarily Hispanic gang community.

Raul has worked as an undercover operative to include long-term operations involving gangs, cartels, anarchist, drugs and weapon trafficking. During many of those undercover operations, Raul worked together with numerous Local, State and Federal Agencies.
